How was this dealt?

125 out of 1475 answered

Cannot be bothered to report it to the police. In the past the police have been useless!

officer attending my work place

Home crime scene by email and phone

Incident site Main street

On the street

Nothing done about it

It wasn't dealt with. Anson said that he had instructions only to deal with traffic offences, so to go to NMH

Nothing was done by RGP

Issues with genderphobic individuals, as well as social comentors who like to spread rummors and scream foul insults outside my house.

No help at all

Very poorly !!! Victim of crime and victim of RGP not carrying out a proper investigation

Never reported

Over the phone with Police Controller ,made a complaint of unsociable behaviour and told they would not attend unless a statement was made at New Mole Police Hqtrs

All of the above.

Cannot be bothered to complain. it takes you nowhere. The police are a bullying mafia!

Complained via social services

Was told they were too. Usy come back kater been 3 times same answer or do it online conoletly useless

Informed the victim support police that called me, that it was not handled correctly

Called spoke to various officers

They knew I was extremely unhappy they did not bother.

There is no independent police complain agency, so what would be the point. It would only benefit the policeman by getting a transfer to Environment Department

I was satisfied

In the process of writing

Speak to victim support where necessary and keep calling the station, though still awaiting resolution!

Emailed police contact asking for updates

I educated the officer re the relevant legislation

What for ?
